PROFESSIONAL WOMEN'S ROUNDTABLE HOSTS A CONVERSATION WITH CITY LEADERS ADDRESSING THE REGION'S VIBRANCY

PHILADELPHIA (March 30, 2004) — Professional Women's Roundtable announces "Addressing the Region's Vibrancy: A Conversation with City Leaders who are Making an Impact." Join PWR on Tuesday, April 20 from 5:30 - 7:30 p.m at the Pyramid Club, 1735 Market Street, 52nd Floor, as we enter into a stimulating conversation with experts on the state of the region. This event is $10 for members and $20 for non-members. Please RSVP to boughtol@pepperlaw.com.

The panel will be moderated by Pennsylvania Economy League Chair, Gregg Melinson and comprised of David Thornburgh, executive director of the Pennsylvania Economy League, Meryl Levitz, president and CEO of the Greater Philadelphia Tourism Marketing Corporation, Peggy Amsterdam, executive director of the Greater Philadelphia Cultural Alliance, and Paul Levy, executive director of the Center City District.

As the national economy begins to recover from the recent recession, Philadelphia's place is unclear: will the City benefit along with the rest of the nation, or will it lag behind its neighbors, as it did in the last boom period? We've all heard of the Brain Drain problem, and know about the current debate regarding the City's tax structure. What options are on the table to revitalize the city, and how do our leaders plan to keep Philadelphia apace with the national economic recovery? We'll hear from a panel of experts who are involved in all aspects of this issue.

Professional Women's Roundtable is an informal network of professional women for whom networking and/or business development is a significant component of their professional responsibilities and career objectives. PWR participants come together on a regular basis to acquire and hone business development and other professional development skills, expand and strengthen their professional network, including their referral base, and meet and cultivate new business prospects and resources. The ideal PWR participant has five to 15 years experience in her chosen profession or career and is focused on enhancing her networking and business development skills and efforts, as well as the other professional skills necessary to advance in today's market-place.
