PROFESSIONAL WOMEN'S ROUNDTABLE WELCOMES THREE DYNAMIC WOMEN FOR MENTORING PANEL

PHILADELPHIA (November 3, 2003) — Professional Women's Roundtable announces a Panel Discussion on Mentoring on Thursday, November 13 at 5:30 p.m. at the Pyramid Club, 1735 Market Street, 52nd Floor. Guest panelists include Audrey C. Talley, Chancellor of the Philadelphia Bar Association and Partner at Drinker Biddle & Reath LLP; Ellen Foley, Managing Editor of the Philadelphia Daily News; and Wendy Rose, Former Partner – Pricewaterhouse Coopers LLP.

This dynamic group of women will help explore mentoring with discussion and Q & A on issues such as How to Develop a Mentoring Relationship and What to Look for in a Mentor.

PWR is an informal network of professional women for whom networking and/or business development is a significant component of their professional responsibilities and career objectives. PWR participants come together on a regular basis to acquire and hone business development and other professional development skills, expand and strengthen their professional network, including their referral base, and meet and cultivate new business prospects and resources. The ideal PWR participant has five to 15 years experience in her chosen profession or career and is focused on enhancing her networking and business development skills and efforts, as well as the other professional skills necessary to advance in today's market-place.
